Unique City Busan

Come to Busan, the city of amusement where you can enjoy sightseeing, shopping and the experience of Korean culture all at once.

Busan, the host city of 11th ISSX International Meeting 2016, is the second largest city in Korea. Busan has increasing reputation as a city for tourism and culture. It is famous for its seafood, beautiful beaches and mountains all around the city area. Moreover, Busan is well known as a city of festivals, such as Busan International Film Festival (BIFF) and Busan Fireworks Festival (BFF) which are held annually every fall. Busan is easily accessible from Seoul, the capital of Korea, via flights or trains, and it connects to many other technical tours.

The nature environment of Busan is a perfect example of harmony between mountains, rivers and sea. It offers abundant selection of unique tour programs including temples, pottery-making programs, refreshing hot springs, and cultural heritage tours as well as many other technical tours.

Visitors can also experience Korea's 5,000-year history through numerous temples and UNESCO World Heritage Sites in the vicinity area.
